

Series 1000 – School/Community Relations

Policy Title: Board-Community Relations

Policy Code No. 1001.1

It shall be the expressed policy of the Board of Directors to actively cooperate with community agencies and organizations concerned with the welfare of students. Efforts of the school system should be directed toward maintaining open communications among the schools, the public, and public agencies. Community support of the schools can best be established through a public that understands and is active in school affairs.
