Policy Title: Organization and Dissolution of Citizen Advisory Committee

Policy Code No. 1002.1

The Board of Directors may appoint citizen advisory committees to fulfill various mandates, specific functions or needs. Such committees shall deal with specific concerns identified and recognized by school officials.

Such matters may be recommended for study by staff members, groups, interested lay people, or community organizations.

The functions of citizen advisory committees shall be clearly defined at the outset, and shall be considered fulfilled when the committee has made its final report--through the superintendent--to the Board of Directors.
