

Series 400 – Employees

Policy Title: WORKERS' COMPENSATION

Policy Code No. 408.15

Definition: An employee who sustains an injury while performing his/her job assignment and as a result is temporarily unable to return to work is eligible to use accrued sick leave.

During the period that the employee is unable to return to work, the employee is eligible to receive full per diem through the use of accrued sick leave and workers' compensation.

Sick leave shall be deducted from an employee's accrued sick leave based upon the per diem portion not covered under the District's workers' compensation policy.

State law and the District's worker's compensation insurance company shall govern policies and procedures associated with all worker's compensation situations.
