

Series 500 – Student Personnel

Policy Title: NON-RESIDENT STUDENT

Policy Code No. 501.6

Any qualified person of school age who is not a resident of this school district and who is a resident of another school district which offers elementary and/or secondary school courses may be admitted to the public schools of this district upon payment of the current per pupil cost of this district as computed by the Board Secretary and as authorized by the Department of Education. Exception to payment of cost is attendance under open enrollment.

A student who has been expelled or is presently under suspension in any other school district shall not be eligible for attendance in the Newton Community School District without the expressed permission of the Board of Directors.
